TODAY'S GAME:

.... Nazareth (20-7) makes its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1998 as the Golden Flyers edged St. John Fisher, 64-63, last Saturday to claim the championship of the Empire 8 Conference. Nazareth is listed in the 'also receiving votes' category of the latest Division III rankings compiled by d3hoops.com. Nazareth has never faced any of the team's competing this weekend -- Rhode Island College, Immaculata or Richard Stockton. Nazareth is making its sixth NCAA Tournament appearance overall and the fourth under the direction of head coach Mike Daley.

.... Nazareth won an exciting game against Fisher to win the E8 title. Ryan McAdam combined 18 points with 10 rebounds to earn tournament MVP honors. Nazareth went ahead 64-63 on a pair of free throws by Joe Canori with 1:45 left, then Corey McAdam was fouled twice in the last five seconds of the game and missed the front end of the resulting one-and-one each time. Fisher's Justin Beigel rebounded the second miss and launched a desperation shot from half court that bounced off the front of the rim as the buzzer sounded. Canori finished with 13 points and Corey McAdam had 12 points and six assists.

NAZARETH THIS SEASON:

.... Nazareth is 20-7 overall and 11-5 in Empire 8 Conference games. The Golden Flyers dropped two games each to Ithaca, Stevens and Rochester (non-conference) and one to Utica.

.... Canori ranks 45th nationally in scoring at 20.4 points per game and recently became Nazareth's all-time scoring leader, entering today's game 1,904 career points. He also is the all-time leader in three-point baskets (282) and ranks 37th nationally in three-point baskets made per game (3.0). In breaking the scoring record, Canori eclipsed the mark of 1,805 held by Chris Pegan since 1998.

.... Corey McAdam, the E8 Rookie of the Year last season, has been spectacular at times. His 8.8 assists per game rank second nationally. He set a school record with 19 assists in a win over York, Pa. on Dec. 28. He also broke the Nazareth single-season assist mark and has 237 heading into today's game. He broke the mark of 218 set by Kevin Broderick in 1989. He also has 81 steals, tying his own single-season record set last year.

.... Ryan McAdam missed six games earlier in the season with a broken left (non-shooting) hand. Nazareth went 3-3 in those games. Corey McAdam was selected as a first-team E8 all-star last week, while Canori earned second-team honored. Ryan McAdam was an honorable mention choice.

.... Nazareth Coach Mike Daley, now in his 22nd season, surpassed the 300-victory mark with a win at Hartwick Feb. 8. His career record now stands at 305-269.

.... Including neutral court wins, Nazareth has set a school record for most wins away from home with 15 this season. The Golden Flyers are 15-3 on the road.

ROAD TO NEW JERSEY

After finishing in third place in the Empire 8 Conference standings during the regular season, Nazareth traveled to Ithaca last weekend to compete in the E8 Conference Tournament for the first time. The Golden Flyers avenged two earlier defeats by beating Stevens, 81-70, in Friday's semifinals, while St. John Fisher upset top-seeded Ithaca, 88-68, in the other semifinal game.

Nazareth then edged five-time defending E8 Conference champion St. John Fisher, 64-63, for the title and the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Senior guard Joe Canori (Webster, N.Y.) scored 22 points (with six three-pointers) to lead a group of five players who scored in double figures against Stevens. Corey McAdam finished one rebound shy of a triple double as he had 17 points, 10 assists and nine rebounds. Sophomore Rayvon Higdon added 15 points, Ryan McAdam 13 points with 10 rebounds and Tyler Smith 10 points and 11 rebounds.

In the title game, Nazareth won its third game over rival St. John Fisher, marking the first time Nazareth has beaten Fisher three times in one season since 1986-87.

Tournament MVP Ryan McAdam combined 18 points with 10 rebounds to lead the Golden Flyers, who led 64-63 following two free throws by

HEAD COACH MIKE DALEY

Now in his 22nd season as Nazareth coach, Mike Daley recently won his 300th career game and stands at 305-269 heading into this weekend's action.

A graduate of St. Bonaventure, Daley has directed Nazareth to four NCAA Tournament appearances and eighth ECAC berths.

In 2002-03, Daley was the national recipient of the Schoenfeld Sportsmanship Award by the College Basketball Officials Association. The award is presented annually to the team that best exemplifies sportsmanship, character and ethics.

NAZARETH IN THE NCAA's

Nazareth is making its sixth appearance overall in the NCAA Tournament. The Golden Flyers previously made it in 1984, 1986, 1987, 1990 and 1998.

Their deepest tournament run came in 1984 when they won games against Buffalo State and Staten Island to win the East Regional title. Former NBA head coach Jeff Van Gundy was Nazareth's starting point guard that year. Nazareth lost to Clark University in the quarterfinals that year, the only time Nazareth has ever hosted an NCAA Tournament game.

SCOUTING RHODE ISLAND COLLEGE

The Anchormen, at 22-6, earned an automatic berth as champion of the Little East Conference. They defeated 10th-ranked UMass-Dartmouth, 55-52, in the conference final to gain their second straight NCAA bid.

RIC finished 27-4 last season and won three NCAA Tournament games to reach the Elite Eight. The Anchormen lost to eventual champion Amherst, 81-69, in the quarterfinals.

Junior guard Tirrell Hill was a first-team all-conference selection in '07-08 after averaging 14 points and 3.0 rebounds per game. Junior guard Bobby Bailey was a second-team selection with averages of 9.8 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.8 assists per game. He was named Most Outstanding Player of the Little East Conference Tournament after scoring 14 points in the title game.

Junior forward Kaseem Johnson also made the second team after averaging a team-high 7.6 rebounds per game to go with a 9.6 scoring average.

Head coach Bob Walsh is in his third season and has a record of 68-20 heading into the weekend. Last year's 27-4 mark was the best in school history and culminated in the school's first NCAA Tournament berth in 28 years.

Walsh's coaching experience includes seven seasons as an assistant at Providence College.
